APPLICATION FORMS

- available on the SNU website ▶ <http://admission.snu.ac.kr>
- ▶ <http://en.snu.ac.kr/apply/info>

1. [Form 1] Application Form
2. [Form 2] Personal Statement & Study Plan
3. [Form 3-1] Recommendation [Form 3-2] Counselor Reference
4. [Form 4] Financial Certification

10.3 Admissions Quota

- The quota for international admissions is not predetermined.
- The College of Education offers admissions within the limit of 10% of each unit for the designated year, in accordance with the “Teacher–Training Institution Quota Adjustment” implemented by the Ministry of Education.

10.4 Things You Should Know Before You Apply

1. Eligibility

- Applicants with Korean and other foreign citizenship are not eligible for International Admissions 1.
- International Admissions If applicants are advised to note that SNU does not acknowledge international schools located in Korea as foreign schools.

2. Application Process

- Applicants should make sure they type in the correct personal information, when undertaking the online application process. In principle, any modification and/or cancellation is not allowed after completing the application.
- Applicants are fully responsible for any disadvantages they may incur due to errors and omissions in the information provided.
- Applicants are not allowed to utilize a cross application approach, which can lead to disenfranchisement. Cross-application is defined as when an applicant is given more than one registration number after submitting multiple applications. Submission of multiple applications means either applying more than one undergraduate course, or applying both undergraduate and graduate course at once.

3. Submission of Documents

- All of the submitted documents are not returnable, and the application fee is not refundable.
- Admissions offered will be rescinded, if false information or unfair practice for admissions played any part in the process. This applies even after a student is enrolled at SNU.

4. Others

- Admitted students to SNU are not allowed to register for any other universities in Korea which are scheduled to hold the same academic year for admissions as that of SNU. If an admitted student does not comply with this regulation, the admissions will be rescinded.
- International Admissions If applicants are subject to the regulation limiting the number of applications to be made in the same academic year. This is in accordance with the new regulation introduced, which restricts the number of applications to six.
- SNU does not disclose information related to admissions decisions.

- The admissions staff reserves the right to require additional documents from applicants should there be any need to clarify the eligibility or to verify the authenticity of the submitted materials.

- A Conditional Offer can be granted to those applicants who have submitted the IB Predicted Grade. SNU will inform the applicant of the required Final Grade that must be met. Those who are holding a Conditional Offer must report the Final IB Grade by July 19. Contingent upon a Final IB Grade which provides evidence of the satisfactory completion of the relevant courses, SNU will announce their Final Decision on the Conditional Offer on July 21, 2015. Please note that the date is subject to change.

- Applicants, having been offered Spring semester admissions via International Admissions II, are not allowed to apply for Fall semester admissions at other universities in Korea as well as at SNU. This restriction applies, even if the applicant did not undertake the actual registration process. The offer itself is regarded as a valid precondition for this restriction to come into effect.

International Admissions Eligibility and Requirements

International applicants must meet the admissions eligibility for either International Admissions I or II by August 31, 2015. Nationality/Citizenship status must be met by the application deadline. How to Apply

1. The Application for Admission Form should be submitted during online application, as outlined on the SNU website (<http://en.snu.ac.kr/apply/info>) and the application website (<http://www.uwvayapply.com>). The application fee (KRW 70,000) is payable online as well.
2. Online application for the fall 2015 intake must be completed by 18:00 (local time in Korea), Feb 26 (Thu.) 2015. The application must include all of the relevant information about the applicant along with payment of the application fee via online. If there is no means of online application during the designated period, the application materials must arrive at the Office of admissions, delivered in person or by post, by no later than 18:00 (local time in Korea), Feb 26 (Thu.) 2015. In such a case, a Bank draft (USD 65; Payable to the "Office of Admissions, SNU") for the application fee must be enclosed in the application packet.

1. Please submit all of the required documents as advised in p. 7-8.
 - Original documents should be submitted. However, should they be unavailable, copies must be authorized by the document-issuing institution or notarized by a public notary.
 - Documents written in foreign language other than Korean or English must be notarized and translated into English or Korean.
 - When submitting your application packet, you may also enclose the sealed recommendation letters in the packet.
 - In case of being unable to submit the original score report of TOEFL, SAT, and/or AP due to delay in processing the requested report, applicants may submit a copy of report (for example, screen-shot of the score report captured online) within the designated period of document submissions. The original report, however, should be submitted later on when it is issued.
2. Please attach the Checklist (which can be downloaded after completing the online application on the U way website) to the envelope of your application packet. On the Checklist, correctly indicate your submitted documents and place the documents in sequential order as indicated on the Checklist.
3. After the completion of both online application and document submission, you may make a phone call (Tel.82-2-880-6971) so as to check the arrival status of your application packet. Online application number is to be asked for verification purpose.

Admissions Criteria

Admissions decisions are based on an overall evaluation of the applicant's academic prospects, taking a holistic approach. The basis of such an evaluation is the documents submitted by the applicant, which are used to assess the applicant's academic achievements, relevant extracurricular activities, interest in the applied course, language proficiency, performance competency, and other factors.

Depending on the policy of the specific college or department, the applicant may be asked to undertake interviews, examinations, and/or a performance test. In such a case, the applicant will be individually notified of these details by the corresponding department or college. The following documents are to be examined as the admissions criteria:

1. Academic Transcripts
2. Personal Statement and Study Plan
3. Letters of Recommendation/Counselor Reference
4. Proof of language proficiency
 - Applicants must submit at least one proof document of language proficiency, either in Korean or English. In case of being unable to submit a proof document as listed below, other supporting documents may be submitted instead. Such documents should be officially approved ones, clearly demonstrating the level of language proficiency.
 - Korean: TOPIK, KIPT
 - English: TEPS, TOEFL, IELTS, TOEIC
 - Other than the required document, any additional document(s) of language proficiency may be submitted as a supplementary material.
 - Others: ESS, ILEPT, DECP/DALF, DELF, ZD, or other approved type
5. Official school introduction/profile(s)
 - The document(s) should be published by the applicant's high school or the Ministry of Education; such documents may include information about the curriculum, availability of advanced coursework, enrollment capacity, grade distribution, standardized test performance distributions, student selection process, admissions requirements, and ratio of students pursuing tertiary education
6. Other Supplementary materials will be taken into consideration for admissions decisions, if submitted. Supplementary materials may be the following, but not limited to:
 - The relevant country's qualifying test for high school graduation or a university admissions test: British GCE A-Level, Japanese Admission Center Exam, Chinese Unified Exam, German Abitur, French Baccalauréat, etc.
 - Standardized tests and other indicators of academic achievement: IB Diploma, IB Certificate, AP, SAT, AICE, AEA, etc.
 - Records of advanced coursework: AP, IB, Honors, etc.
 - Official letter or other documents by the high school indicating the applicant's class rank or percentile (if not stated in the applicant's academic transcript)

Things You Should Know After You Are Admitted

Admitted students should complete registration(payment for tuition fee) in designated period. Otherwise, admission decision will be rescinded.

Applicants whose graduation status is pending during the time of application should submit their Graduation Certificates to the Office of Admissions within 15 days after their enrollment at SNJ. Failure to submit such a document without a valid reason may invalidate any admissions offer.

Since July 14, 2007, Seoul National University has complied with the Apostille Requirements in accordance with the 1961 Hague Convention. Accordingly, newly admitted students from countries which are signatories to the convention must attach and submit the Apostille. Students from countries which are NOT signatories to the convention must submit a substitute documents, which can be official documents legalized by a Korean consular office, or another form of authentication (e.g. a Certificate of Authentication or a Certificate of Overseas Educational Institutions) issued by the Korean Embassy or Consulate. Please refer to [Appendix 3] on page 14 for further details.

The admissions committee will decide whether or not each student should take an additional Korean test. Admitted students, who are notified of taking Korean Proficiency Test at the SNJ Language Education Institute (LEI), should take the Korean language test on the scheduled date. If a student gets Level 4 or below in his/her Korean Proficiency Test, he/she may be subject to the limitation in enrollment.

Admitted students may not defer admission to a later semester. If admitted students want to use leave of absence after registration, they should contact the administration office of corresponding colleges in advance.

After the announcement of the admissions decision, admitted students are advised to note the Guide for Admitted Students for information about scholarships, campus accommodations, and other information.

APOSTILLE Requirements For Newly Admitted Students

Since July 14, 2007, the Republic of Korea has been a party of the 1961 Hague Convention abolishing the Requirement of Legalization for Foreign Public Documents. The Convention provides for the simplified certification or public (including notarized) documents to be used in countries that have joined the convention.

The Apostille ensures that public documents issued in one signatory country will be recognized as valid in another signatory country.

Apostille certificates are to be submitted within 15 days after enrollment at SNU.
For information regarding how to get an Apostille, please refer to the website <http://www.hecknet.net> (Apostille Section).

Please refer to the list of signatory countries on Apostille certificates on page 20.

1. Official certificates (Transcripts, Graduation certificate/diplomas, etc.) from public schools or institutions should be submitted with the attachment of "Apostille"
2. Official certificates (Transcripts, Graduation certificate/diplomas, etc.) from private schools or institutions, however, should be officially notarized by a notary, agency or any other authority competent under the law of the country of origin of the certificates, and then should be submitted with the attachment of "Apostille"

N.B. All documents should be in English or Korean. If it is in any other language, you must submit a notarized/certified translation (in Eng. or Kor.) completed by a public notary in the country where the document was originally produced.

1. Official certificates (Transcripts, Graduation certificate/diplomas, etc.) must be legalized by a Korean consular officer in the country which issued the certificates
2. Applicants from these countries should submit the official certificates with the attachment of an Authentication (ex. Certificate of Authentication or Certificate of Overseas Educational Institutions) issued by the Korean Embassy or Consulate.

N.B. All documents should be in English or Korean. If it's in any other language, you must submit a notarized/certified translation (in Eng. or Kor.) completed by a public notary in the country where the document was originally produced.
